

Mon Valley Scenes

51st International Village comes to a close in McKeesport

McKeesport's 51st annual International Village came to a close Thursday after three days of picture-perfect weather for the outdoor heritage festival at Renziehausen Park. Above left, 15-month-old McKeesporter Nico Keteles dances as the young Lajkonki dancers, above right, show him and other spectators how it's done.

— Photos by Cindy Shegan Keeley/Daily News

— Photo by Cindy Shegan Keeley/Daily News
A group of men from the PAS Slovak Folk Ensemble step in unison during one of their many fast-paced dance numbers.

— Photo by Ben Filio/For The Daily News
Emmie, a 6-year-old Filipino dancer, waits alongside a fence at Stephen Barry Field before taking the stage Thursday evening.

— Photo by Cindy Shegan Keeley/Daily News
Volunteers collect money and stamp hands at the Village gates.

— Photo by Cindy Shegan Keeley/Daily News
The International Village crowd gathers in small circles around the stage.

— Photo by Ben Filio/For The Daily News
The Del Sinchak Band performs under the Jakomas Blue Top Pavilion.

